BRIEF DESCRIPTION

What kind of Americans are "on the take"? How are they cheating every one of us? Here is a shocking, factual story that probes behind headline scandals.

Recent "payola" and quiz show exposés only scratched the surface of today's gray-flannel morality. Millions of Americans, as Mr. Gibney proves, are "taken" every day by a vastly more subtle army of "honest" car dealers, "friendly" mortgage men, crooked union bosses, "cure-all" advertisers, chiseling TV repairmen, phony "educators," income-tax swindlers, and "respectable" businessmen all the way from the local store owner to a corporation board chairman.

In the current ethical jungle, members of our Genial Society may be both the innocent and the guilty, victimizer and victim. A staff writer on Life, a former feature writer of Time and an editor of Newsweek, Frank Gibney has documented every page of this extraordinary report—a startling profile of America that is alive with remarkable personalities and case histories. Not since One Hundred Million Guinea Pigs has one book presented such a powerful indictment of fraud upon the public. Now The Operators illuminates today's vastly different methods and manners, and, going deeper, penetrates the moral confusion evident at every level of the Genial Society of the Fifties.
